

Press release

The PGA of Belgium Proudly Welcomes Belfius Brussels North As New Strategic Partner | Ghent, March 7, 2024 - The PGA of Belgium is pleased to announce its partnership with Belfius Brussels North as the official new Elite Partner of our Association. This unique partnership reinforces our mission to help further develop Belgian golf.

As a leading name in the banking industry, Belfius Brussels North brings not only financial support but also valuable expertise and networking opportunities to our team. This strategic partnership allows us to increase our impact and further support and develop our community.

Belfius Brussels North thus demonstrates its commitment to social and sporting responsibility and to promoting positive change. This partnership offers numerous benefits for both parties and reinforces our shared commitment to a better future.

Bernard A. de Bruyckere, Chief Executive of the Royal PGA of Belgium commented “We are most pleased to welcome Belfius Brussels North as our partner which will help us to prepare the future of the Association in to the golfing community. Our slogan is “We Care for Your Game” and Belfius Brussels North will be a great asset in this. We look forward to reaching new milestones together and implementing innovative projects. The support of Belfius Brussels North will play a crucial role in realizing our ambitious plans and in stimulating sustainable growth.”

For more information on our new partnership and future projects, please contact the Royal PGA of Belgium at info@pga.be.

End of press release.

Belfius

BRUSSELS NORTH